

Ethics Pledge for the People of Luzerne County

The following statement is a personal commitment to a shared set of ethical standards for Luzerne County, PA. It is not a legal document.

Definition

Ethics is a moral code that guides human conduct in matters of right and wrong.

___ I pledge to follow the highest ethical standards in my personal life, workplace, school and community organizations. I will strengthen our community by demonstrating personal integrity in all my actions.

___ I pledge to take full responsibility for learning the standards of conduct and code of ethics for any position I may hold in the workplace, school or community organizations, and to fully comply with all relevant standards, laws, regulations and policies.

___ I pledge not to use information, financial resources or other resources improperly or illegally.

___ I pledge to avoid any situation in which decisions I make will benefit my personal interest at the expense of the public interest. I will avoid any conflict of interest that benefits --- or appears to benefit --- me, my family or my business associates.

___ If I encounter wrongdoing in the workplace, school or community organizations, I pledge to speak up and to support others who speak up.

___ I pledge to be truthful and respectful in all communication, and to help create an atmosphere of respect and civility where all members of the public are free to express their ideas responsibly.

___ I pledge to work with others for the common good, pursuing accomplishments together that we cannot achieve alone.
